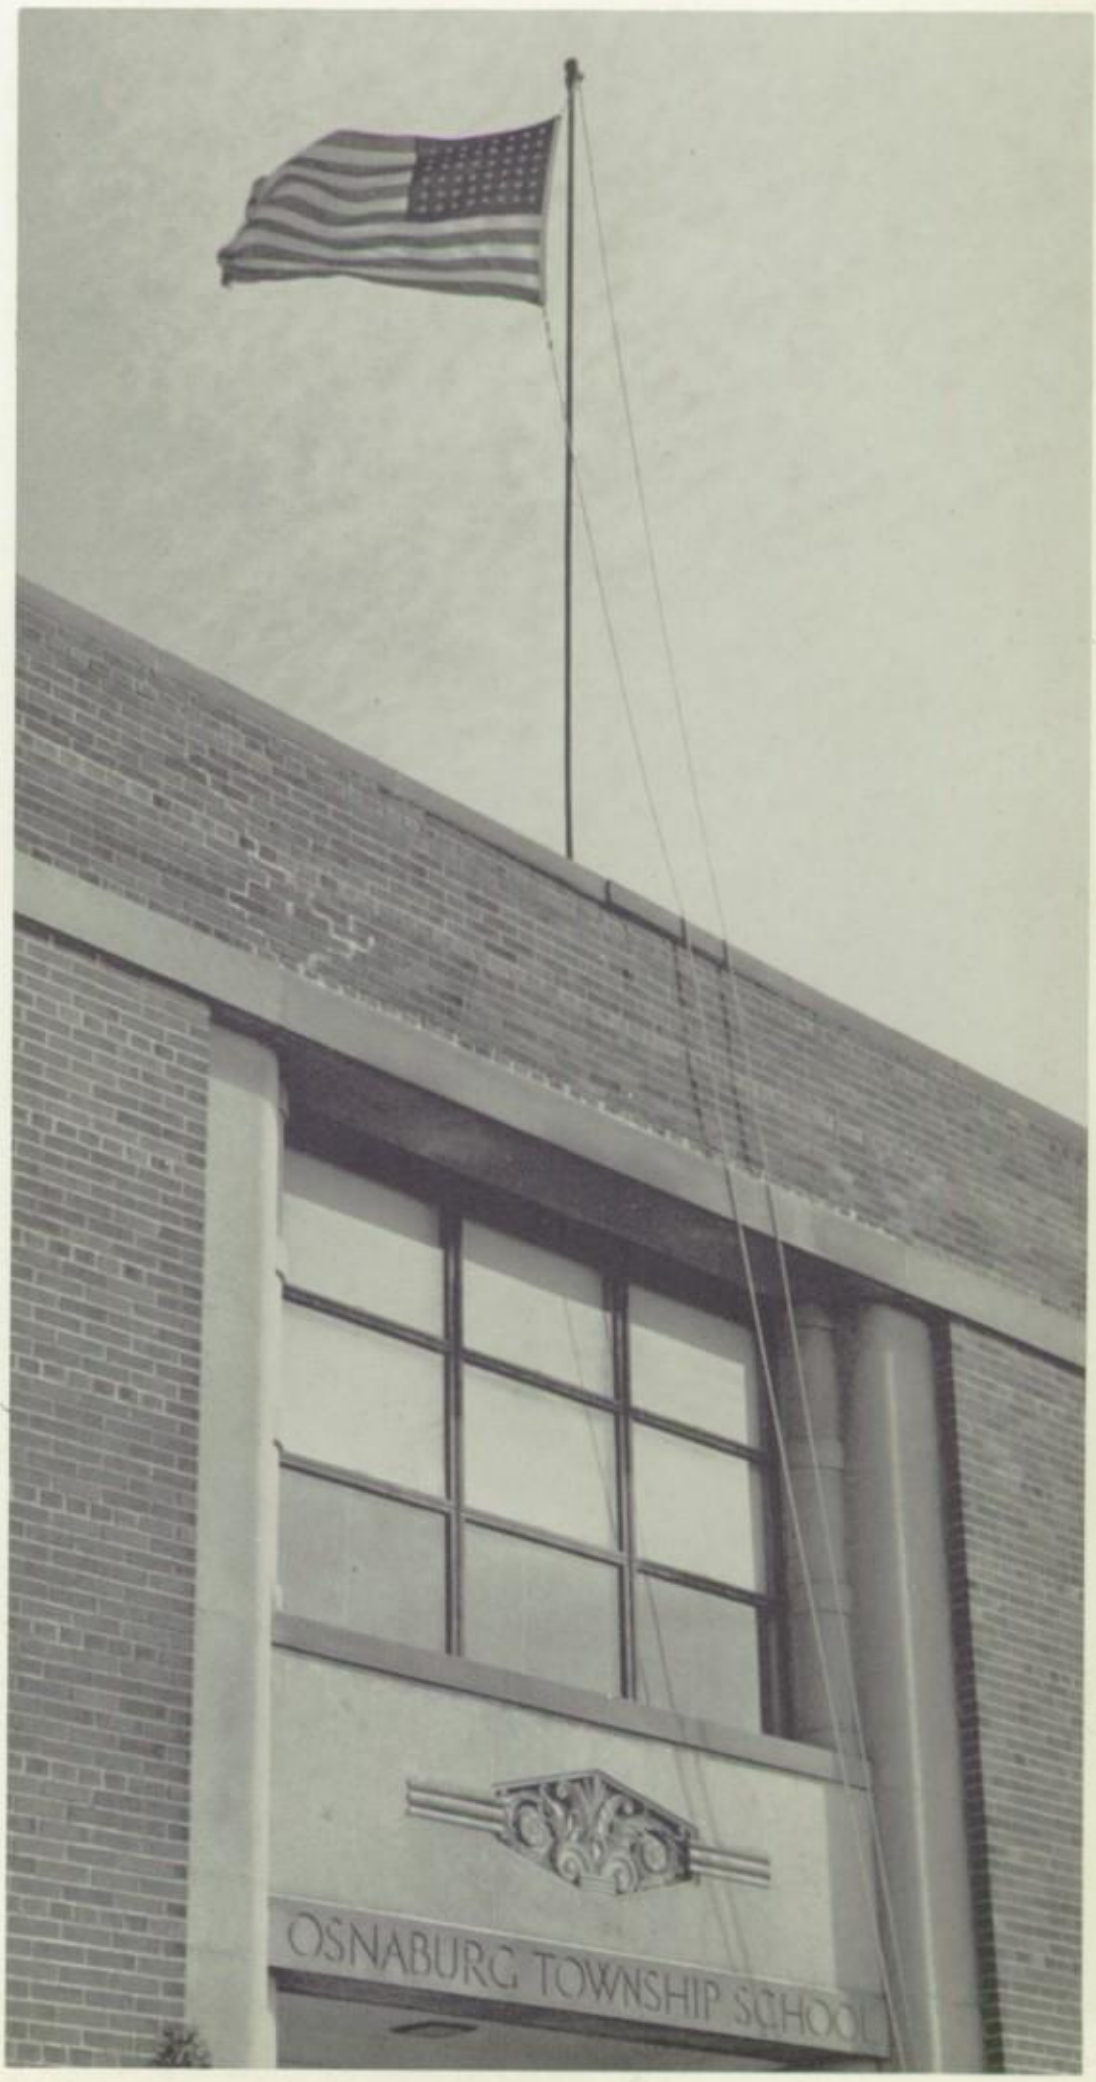
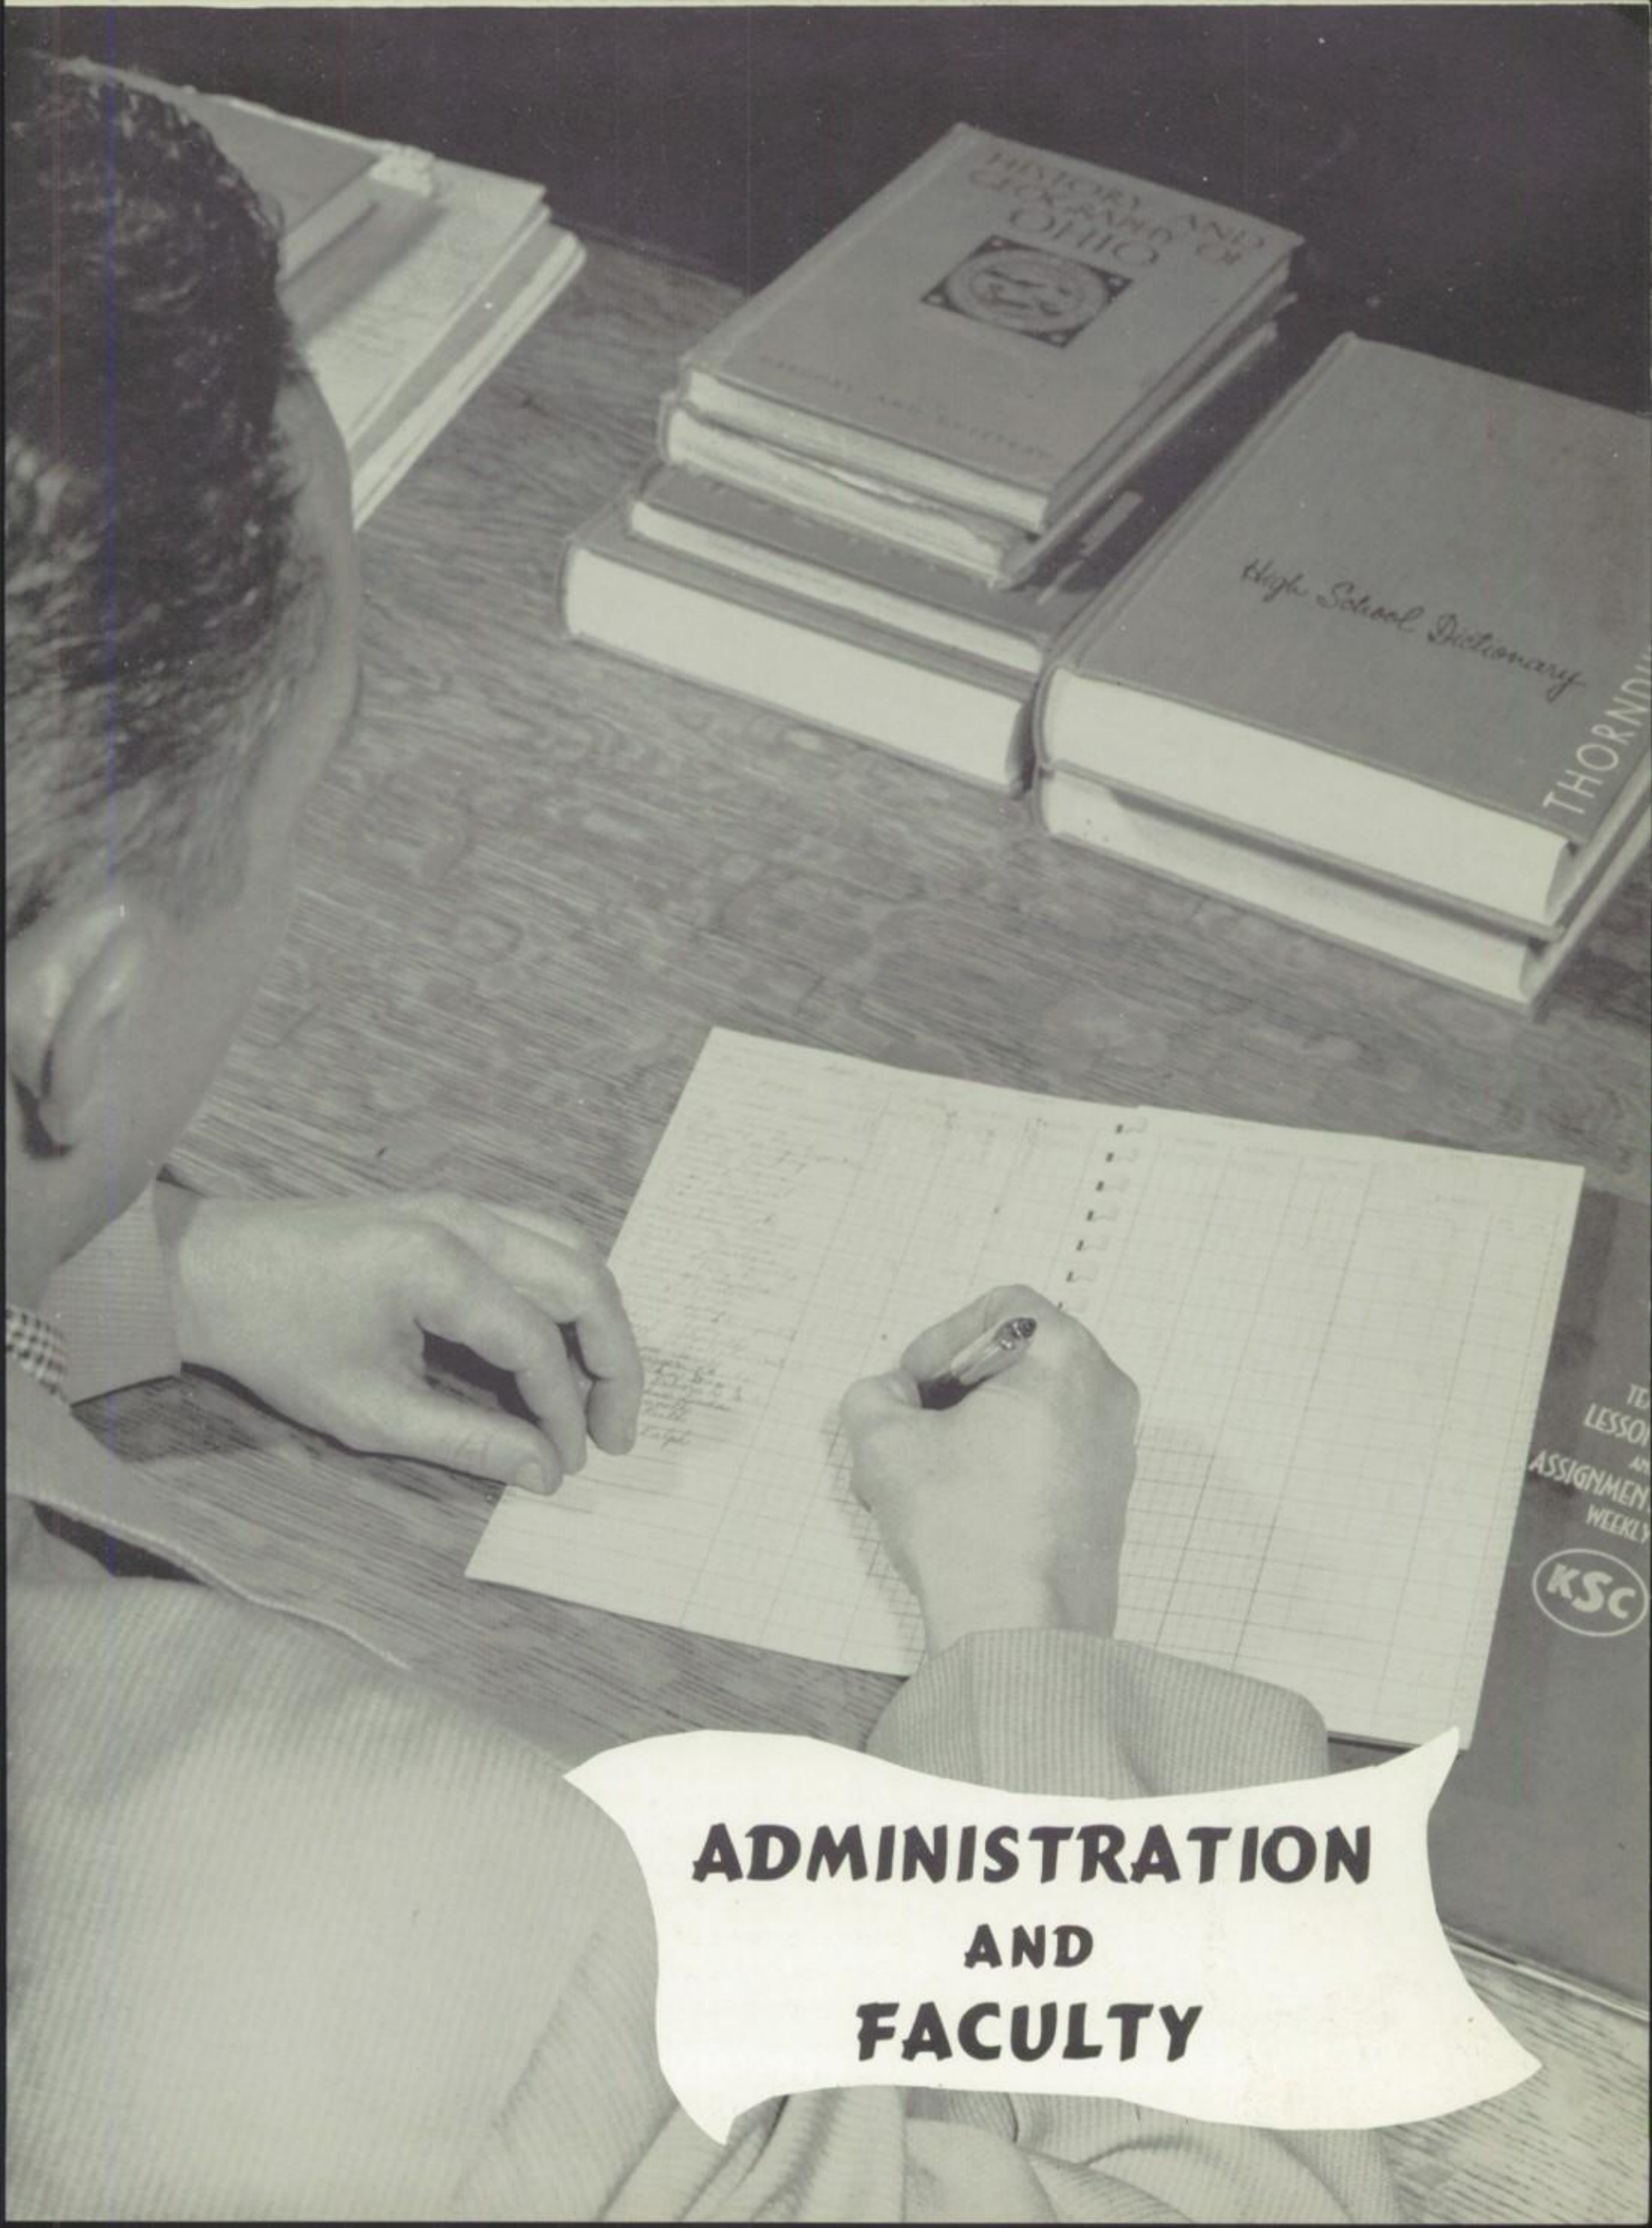
MAY 1955



As a class, we do humbly dedicate this, our annual, to our parents, our faculty, and all those who have helped guide us through our school years.

We especially want to acknowledge the help and encouragement of our sponsors, Mrs. Ryder and Mrs. Keys, during the past two years. Without their sincere desire to make our class a successful one neither this annual nor any of the class's projects would have been possible.

So we hereby extend our gratitude and wish them all the very best that life can offer.



ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

SUPERINTENDENT

Remember that life is composed of innumerable habits which make up your entire expression, and resolutely cultivate whatever habit you know to be helpful for success and prosperity. You can make yourself what you really want to be. Use the spirit of I can and I will. Believe in yourself, and others will believe in you.

PRINCIPAL

He who waits to do a great deal of good at once will never do anything. Life is made up of little things. It is very rarely that an occasion is offered for doing a great deal at once. True greatness consists in being great in little things.

SENIORS

CLASS HISTORY

At last the day had come when the eighty-three members of the class of '55 were Freshmen. Mrs. Williams, Miss Isenman, and Mr. Schafer were our sponsors. The class elected Clark Kandel, President; Bob Kroft, Vice-President; Nadine Veit, Secretary; and Kenneth Haynam, Treasurer. Our money raising project this year was the collecting of tax stamps during which we had a contest between the boys and girls.

Moving on to our Sophomore year we found our sponsors were Mrs. Walters and Mr. Heckaman. Our officers this year were Ross Sherer, President; Clark Kandel, Vice-President; Nadine Veit, Secretary; Kenneth Haynam, Treasurer. This year Shelva Smith, Paul Ake, Dale Henderlong, Dave Oyster, and Jack Batten joined our class but before the year was over we were to lose Edna Becker, Roger Bolger, Thelma Bowser, David Buckwalter, Delores Campbell, Donald Clapper, Wilbur Clapper, Jack Jones, Tom King, James Kreitzer, Eugene Leotti, May Lones, Herbert Lowery, Gene Maurer, Carolyn Mikes, Shirley Nordick, Ronald Patterson, Elmer Stidom, William Wagner, James Walker, and Gerald Wilson. To increase our treasury we sold seeds, shakeroos, and collected tax stamps. We also sponsored a hayride for our class. Our class participated in stunt night sponsored by the Student Council.

With Mrs. Keys and Mrs. Ryder as our sponsors we began our Junior year with a membership of sixty-six. We re-elected the same class officers. Those to depart from our class were Virginia Dobransky, Mary Jo Howell, Pat Schuster, Lenora Kirby, Virginia Becker, and Dale Henderlong. In the untimely death of Mary Jo Howell the class experienced its first common sorrow. We shall always remember her as a friendly, warm-hearted girl who was liked by everyone. Under the capable direction of Mr. Quinn we successfully presented "Girl Shy" as our Junior play. This was our first venture in dramatics. Everyone had a wonderful time whether being an actor, putting up the set, painting, mixing and putting on make-up, selling ads for the programs, or selling tickets for the play. Our second success of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom held at the Shady Hollow Country Club, where we were feted first at a lavish smorgasbord and then enjoyed the prom. An added attraction to our prom was a Prom Queen, who was elected by secret ballot from the Junior and Senior girls. This high-light was followed by an all-night party at the Y.M.C.A. where we enjoyed swimming, bowling, and square-dancing. This was followed by breakfast at the school sponsored by Junior and Senior parents. The big money raising project was selling magazines in which Pat Renner acquired first prize for selling the most subscriptions. Other projects were the selling of Stanley products, booklets, candy, refreshments at the home basketball games and at a sale on Marion Dick's farm, shakeroos, salt and pepper shakers, and collecting tax stamps.

Still under the guidance of Mrs. Keys and Mrs. Ryder we came to the year we had all been looking forward to — our Senior year at East Canton High. Of course we were happy, but we also regret the fact that this was the last of twelve exciting years at East Canton School. Our class officers who did an excellent job, were Ross Sherer, President; David Oyster, Vice-President; Nadine Veit, Secretary; Kenneth Haynam, Treasurer; and Barbara Gray, Ass't. Treasurer. With the loss of Shelva Smith, Stanley Westfall, Paul Ake, Norman Metzger, Kenneth Mowery, and John Mottice our membership was reduced to fifty-three. To raise money for our class trip we collected tax stamps, sold candy, stuffed dogs, typing paper, and tablets. This year we staged "The Little Dog Laughed" under the direction of Mr. Powell. The annual Senior Washington tour was a new venture for us. We will long remember our first sights and impressions of the seat of our government and of the exciting experiences we had while there. The annual Junior-Senior Prom, which was held May 13, 1955, at the Shady Hollow Country Club, was followed again this year by an all-night party at the Y.M.C.A. Clark Kandel, ably assisted by Bob Kroft and the annual staff, produced for us this annual of which we are justly proud. Baccalaureate and Commencement services were held in the high school on May 22 and 26 respectively. We must now go out and face the world on our own as we strive to build a secure and happy future.

CLASS PROPHECY

Time: 8:15 Fri. Dec. 2, 1965
Place: Washington, D. C., Department of Justice
File: No. 1955

My partner, Sergeant DAVE OYSTER, and I were working the day watch out of the Racket Division. Our captain, DON BARWICK, called us into his office and told us he had received a telegram from J. EDGAR DARRAH requesting an investigation of the attempted "fixing" of the Madison Round Garden Bouts.

Time: 10:15 Dec. 2, 1965
Place: Constitution Avenue, Washington, D. C.

We hailed a taxi and were pleasantly surprised to see that the driver was our old classmate, BONNIE (Speedy) PIERCE. Speeding on through heavy city traffic and many red lights we reached the Washington, D.C., Municipal Airport at 10:30. Upon boarding the plane we found our pilot to be Captain DAVID BECK. After handing our reservations to pert Stewardess, ALVETTA STITH, we were comfortably seated and arrived in New York at 10:35. We grabbed a taxi, and who should the driver be this time but PHIL (Hot Rod) STOFFER. We were swiftly transported to our New York Field Office and arrived there at 1:00. Swiftly? Here we received last minute instructions from Field Representative, RINEHART. We adjourned for a late lunch at D. D. DICKERHOFF'S Delectable Delicatessen. We were again surprised to see the proprietor was our old friend, DENNY. His head chef proved to be another old classmate known as CLARK (Ptomaine Tommy) KANDEL. The head waitress was still another former classmate, JEANNE SIMON.

Time: 5:00, Dec. 2, 1965
Place: Shankel's Slumber Inn

We approached the desk at the ritziest hotel in town, Shankel's Slumber Inn. It was an unexpected pleasure to find the owner to be one more old grad of ECHS '55, JEAN SHANKEL. The desk clerk, MAXINE HEWITT, rang for the bell boy, CHUCK SWOPE, and we retired to our separate rooms.

Time: Dec. 3, 1965, 8:00 a. m.
Place: Shankel's Slumber Inn

After a hasty breakfast we proceeded to Jan's Gym, which was owned and operated by none other than JANICE NIMON. Here we interviewed the main contender for the Heavy-weight Crown, JIM (Rocky) JORDAN. His manager, BOB KROFT, violently objecting throughout the questioning, insisted he see his "mouthpiece" first. A call was put through to his lawyer, and she quickly appeared on the scene. Who should it be but PAT RENNER! Her influence upon the fighter was too great, and he "clammed up", so we started "putting the heat on" his sparring partner, Gary (Cauliflower) CABLE. Again we drew a blank. We decided to leave, and on our way out encountered a chopped and channelled, custom-built "Caddy" convertible.* Behind the wheel was GARY OSBORN chauffeuring Rocky's dizzy blond friend, BARB GRAY. Another blank.

*channelled, custom-built, "Caddy" convertible.

Time: Dec. 3, 1965, 1:00
Place: Headquarters

Reporting to headquarters we found another old friend, BEV RICHARDS, now better known as "Stretch, the Stoolie". She gave us a "hot tip" on a "bookie joint" which was giving alarmingly high odds on the upcoming fight. All she'd say was, "Go to Carl's Confectionary."

Time: Dec. 3, 1965, 2:30
Place: Back room, Carl's Conf.

On arrival we discovered that the confectionary owner was SHIRLEY CARL. She promptly showed us to the back room, and here we were met by "Katie the Bookie". We were shocked to learn that "Katie" was our KATHERINE FABYANIC. By the appearance of her expensive clothes it was obvious that, since becoming legal, bookmaking was a very profitable business. Declaring she knew only what she read in the newspapers about the attempted bribe, Katie, highly insulted, walked out and slammed the door. It was clear that no further evidence could be gained by staying here, so away we went.

Time: Dec. 3, 1965, 5:30
Place: Shankel's Slumber Inn

Wearily we returned to the hotel and ordered dinners to be taken to our rooms. Immediately after eating we "hit the sack".

Time: Dec. 4, 1965, 12:00 noon
Place: Shankel's Slumber Inn

After I awoke, I phoned my partner, Dave, and, since this was our day off, we decided to take in a Broadway musical. Scanning the reviews we decided to see the recent hit, "The Little Hound Ha Ha'd". We received complimentary tickets from the producer-director, EILEEN BLOSE, an old friend. At the theater we were surprised to find JACK (The Ripper) BATTEN taking tickets at the door. We were even more surprised to learn the stars were MARION (The Voice) LOWERY and CONNIE (The Canary) HARBERT. By our programs we discovered the set designer was the very famous SHIRLEY RICE, and the costumes were original creations by the well-known team of MOSER & BAUM. It was still early when the show ended, so we decided to go to a night-spot. Here we heard the melodious strains coming from the piano artistry of ROBERT (Rinky Tink) HARRIS, who accompanied the sensational sister act, "The Paumier Sisters". The act consisted of BETTY LOU and KATHLEEN PAUMIER. We heard the familiar cry, "Candy, Nuts, Gum," and turned to see an old schoolmate, NADINE VEIT, selling candy for the establishment. Pop! There went a flash-bulb. Our picture was taken by a very capable photographer, IRENE BROWN. She also worked for the establishment. As it was very late, we returned to the hotel.

Time: Dec. 5, 1965, 2.00 p.m.
Place: Madison Round Garden

Arriving at the Madison Round Garden whom should we see first but that great soloist, GARY FULTON. As we approached we also observed his accompanist, the equally famous BETTY JO WORKMAN. They were rehearsing for their appearance at the night's performance. It was their job to sing and play the National Anthem before the fights. We went to the office and found ace sports reporter, KENNY HAYNAM, and Boxing Commissioner, ROSS SHERER, discussing the evening's bout. Also present were the trustworthy referee, NICK BOTEAN, and Slugger's joint contract holders, ALLAN & DEAN HENDERSON. They claimed that the talk about the bribe was nothing but rumors.

Time: Dec. 5, 1965, 4:00 p.m.
Plate: Batten's Burger Stand

We dined at the Burger Stand of our old friend, NANCY BATTEN, where we were served by the very competent RHODA POLEN. While eating we heard a voice that sounded vaguely familiar; turning we saw SALLY LYONS. It seemed this was the meeting place for Slugger's fan club of which she was president. They had planned a brief meeting before the fight.

Time: Dec. 5, 1965, 7:00 p.m.
Place: Shankel's Slumber Inn

Entering the hotel we checked our hats and coats with night clerk, PAT WARDLE, and went straight to the TV lounge where we planned to view the fight. After being seated, we ordered soft drinks from the lounge waitress, pretty BERNADINE DOLL. Glancing around the room we encountered the very prominent psychologist, RONALD C. P. FISHER, and his petite secretary, Miss MARJORIE O'NEIL, who were in town attending a convention. It was time for the fights, but the Lone Stranger was on, so we persuaded Chief Channel Manager, BEVERLY CROSS, to change the channel to the fights. While watching the fights we recognized Slugger's seconds to be none other than FRED SHEPLER and BOB MIDDAUGH. The bell rang, and within two minutes and 10 seconds Slugger floored his opponent for the count, thus dispelling all rumors that he had accepted a bribe to throw the fight. That's all folks.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
THE SENIOR CLASS

We, the Senior Class, of the City of East Canton, County of Stark, and State of Ohio, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

First. We direct that all our just debts and expenses for last rites be fully paid and satisfied, as soon as conveniently may be, after our decease.

Second. We give, devise, and bequeath unto the members of the junior class the following:

I, Don Barwick, do bequeath my cat naps in class to Paul Rope.

I, Jack Batten, do bequeath my cowboy boots to Rosemary Moulin.

I, Nancy Batten, do bequeath my short, brown hair and brown eyes to Marlene Linder.

I, Wilbur Baum, do bequeath my Balboa haircut to Carol Rothacher.

I, David Beck, do bequeath my ability to speed-shift to Joe Mair.

I, Eileen Blose, do bequeath my mischievousness to Dale Oberly.

I, Nick Botean, do bequeath my ability to play the bass drum to Doris Thoma.

I, Irene Brown, do bequeath my attraction to ice-skating to Jim Zimmerman.

I, Gary Cable, do bequeath my 4-H ribbons to Bob Unkefer's cow.

I, Shirley Carl, do bequeath nothing. I need everything I have.

I, Beverly Cross, do bequeath my desire to become a school teacher to Mr. Goddard, who can always use an extra one.

I, David Darrah, do bequeath my perfect behavior to Ruth Marhover.

I, Dennis Dickerhoff, do bequeath my odd parts in the class plays to Bill Bates.

I, Bernadine Doll, do bequeath my nickname to Ruth Canter.

I, Katherine Fabyanic, do bequeath my attraction to the study of taxidermy to Dorothy Williams.

I, Ronny Fisher, do bequeath my wolf whistle to any junior with friends on the police force.

I, Gary Fulton, do bequeath my love for singing every minute of every day to Carl Spoon.

I, Barbara Gray, do bequeath my interest in Kent State to Ruth Ann Crawford.

I, Bob Harris, do bequeath my streamlined Chevie to Bill West.

I, Connie Harbert, do bequeath my basketball ability to Grace Mark.

I, Kenny Haynam, do bequeath my very, very slightly used government book to any junior who wants it. (Don't everybody speak at once!)

I, Allan Henderson, do bequeath my weight-lifting ability to David Foltz.

I, Dean Henderson, do bequeath my ooga-ooga horn to Ramon Fornasiero.

I, Maxine Hewitt, do bequeath my quiet manner to Willie Eakin.

I, Jim Jordan, do bequeath my cornet artistry to Dick Rohrbaugh.

I, Clark Kandel, do bequeath all the fun and good times on the annual staff to Don Brunner, the 1956 "ECHO" editor.

I, Bob Kroft, do bequeath my Mercury right back to Ed Sullivan.

I, Marion Lowery, do bequeath my pink handkerchief and pink shirt to Mildred Novosel.

I, Sally Lyons, do bequeath my position as captain of the cheerleading squad to Sharon Hoskinson.

I, Bob Middaugh, do bequeath my speech lessons to Richard Blythe.

I, Judy Moser, do bequeath my ability to get good grades to Jack Meiser, who really doesn't need it, but can maybe find someone that does.

I, Marjorie O'Neil, do bequeath my pleasing personality to be distributed evenly among all the juniors.

I, Gary Osborn, do bequeath my "Hot 36 Ford" to Gary Feiock.

I, David Oyster, do bequeath nothing to any junior; Donna gets it all.

I, Betty Lou Paumier, do bequeath my ability to win friends and influence people to any possible newcomer to the class of "56."

I, Kathleen Paumier, do bequeath my blond hair to Nancy Shepherd.

I, Bonnie Pierce, do bequeath my cobweb-covered sax to Jack Cross.

I, Pat Renner, do bequeath the editorship of the "Hornet" to Barbara Carl.

I, Shirley Rice, do bequeath my ability to draw to Richard Metzger.

I, Beverly Richards, do bequeath my nickname Stretch, to Etta Lawhun. Since it didn't do me any good, I am hoping it will help her.

I, Bob Rinehart, do bequeath my shenanigans in sociology class to Betty Rohrer.

I, Jean Shankel, do bequeath my red hair to Bob Newhart.

I, Fred Shepler, do bequeath my worn-out gym shoes to Mary Phfleger.

I, Ross Sherer, do bequeath the presidency of the senior class to any junior who doesn't mind having his legs run off.

I, Jeanne Simon, do bequeath my art of blushing to Glenn Royer, who usually has occasion to use it.

I, Rhoda Polen, do bequeath everything to my hubby.

I, Alvetta Stith, do bequeath all the pleasant memories of my senior year to all the junior girls.

I, Phil Stoffer, do bequeath my inattentiveness in government class to any junior who agrees with me in the fact that it is unwise to be overly-attentive.

I, Chuck Swope, do bequeath my worn-out football practice pants back to the class of "45."

I, Nadine Veit, do bequeath the memories of my experiences at Girl's State to the next lucky junior girl.

I, Pat Wardle, do bequeath my love for chewing gum in church to John Vincent.

We, Betty Workman and Peg Boltres, do bequeath the privilege of getting "loaded doughnuts" in our senior year to any junior girl who is lucky enough.

In Witness Whereof, we, the Senior Class, the testator, have set our hands and seal hereto this Sixth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five. (1955)

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

As Juniors, we presented the play entitled "Girl Shy." The play was under the direction of Mr. Howard Quinn.

The setting was a graduation week-end at college and it has been said that spring turns a young man's fancy toward love, and that is exactly what happened. The entire cast found someone of their choice, and at the end of the play the audience agreed that no one was "Girl Shy."

The cast included Gary Fulton, Clark Kandel, Bonnie Pierce, Ross Sherer, Margaret Boltres, David Oyster, Sally Lyons, Beverly Richards, Judy Moser, Patricia Renner, Denny Dickerhoff, and Bob Middaugh.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

THE LITTLE DOG LAUGHED

The play is centered around a typical American fam ily and what takes place when their daughter comes home from college and uses her Psychology to straighten out her family's tangled lives. She finds that their lives weren't so tangled after all.

There is plenty of confusion, sadness, and loads of fun and laughter in this play which ends happily for everyone involved.

The cast consisted of the following: Alvetta Stith, Ross Sherer, Bonnie Pierce, Gary Fulton, Katherine Fabyanic, Sally Lyons, Clark Kandel, Judy Moser, Shirley Carl, Barbara Gray, Pat Renner, Eileen Blose, Janice Nimon.

The first fete of the East Canton Band, composed of seventy-six members, was its annual appearance at the Stark County Fair.

As usual the band game many splendid showings during the football season; it also participated in the Football Preview with all the other bands of the county.

During December the band combined with the choral department, gave a very interesting concert at which it played both sacred and secular numbers. The highlight of the program was the last number, "Tribute to Romberg", in which both the band and choruses participated.

Many members of the band participated in the all County Music Festival held in the Canton Auditorium on February twenty-second. Those receiving special honors were those who had the privilege of participating in the select band. Those chosen from our band were Bonnie Pierce, Pat Williams, Wilbur Baum, and Nick Botean.

Several ensembles were sent to the Solo and Ensemble Contest. Our ensembles didn't all come out with the highest ratings, but they had experiences which they will always remember.

To a welcome spring the band presented a Spring Concert on March 20.

The last event of the school year for the band was their playing at baccalaureate.

SEASON PLAY

The 1954 football season opened at East Canton two weeks before school started. Forty-one boys reported for uniforms and physical examinations; although only 7 of these were lettermen. Thirty-five of the boys showed promise and lasted throughout the season. The team's outlook was darkened by half-back Ross Sherer's elbow and George Yoho's knee injuries met with in scrimmage before the season started. These injuries kept the boys out of action until the last few games. With adjustments made to try to fill the vacant positions, the team started the season by winning the first game. In spite of repeated losses, the team showed plenty of spirit and fight. They practiced hard, but could not quite make their hard work pay off until the last game. A man of outstanding value to the team was all-around Dale Oberly, who also made the all-county first team. The following seniors were key men: Ross Sherer, Charles Swope, Robert Harris, Clark Kandel, the line buster; and Gary Fulton, a first year man who played center. Other key men were Dick Barrick, whose revised signal calling confused the opposing team; Don Irwin and Leonard Talbott, offensive and defensive half backs; and Richard Clapper, freshman first string guard.

BASKETBALL SEASON PLAY

With a nucleus of three lettermen, Bob Newhart, Dean Henderson, and Dale Oberly, and promising material from last year's reserve team, Coach Zorn built a basketball team that finished the season with a 5-5 league record and a three-way tie with Navarre and Jackson for second place.

Dick Barrick and Willie Eakin were selected from the reserve team to hold respectively the positions of forwards and center on the first team. Don Barwick, another senior, was found to be a good forward substitute. The biggest handicap of the season was the loss of George Yoho through a shoulder injury.

The boys won the first tournament game with Beach City and went down to defeat in the second game against Navarre. Dean Henderson was high point man in both tournament games but team work was more outstanding.

Our plucky reserve team deserves a word of commendation for the way they stood up under one of the toughest schedules of the season. Their spirit and experience will be an asset to next year's varsity and reserve teams.

EDITORS' NOTE

We, the Editors of the 1955 ECHO, wish to express our sincere thanks to the Annual Staff for the time and effort they so willingly gave toward making this annual possible.

To Jeanne Simon and Jean Shankel, may we say a special "Thank You" for their assistance on the art work.

To the Administration and Faculty, for their wonderful understanding and cooperation, our deepest gratitude.

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Alfred Tennyson

In case this picture needs explaining: "Tears and Roses for the Seniors."

This is all in fun.
But it is true that you
Can't hardly get these kind no more.

What's your choice?

EVER think about working in some far away place? Like logging in Oregon? Lobstering in Maine? Farming in Iowa? Go ahead if you want to. Freedom to work in any locality is one of your American rights. And it's a right that people in some other countries wish they had.

Millions of people behind the Iron Curtain can't work where they choose. Communist bosses make them slaves where manpower is needed most. And if they do try to move someplace else, they're very likely to end up in a box car bound for Siberia.

What's your choice? Freedom, of course. But there's more to preserving our rights than just thinking about them. Communists over here would give us Iron Curtain country working standards if they could. They've done it every place else they've taken over.

If we want to keep our rights, like the right to work in any locality, we've got to work for them. One way is to speak up when we hear someone talking down our freedom. After all, a few extra words from each of us could guarantee our freedom forever.

TIMKEN

The Timken Roller Bearing Company

"The right to work shall not be abridged nor made impotent"

DO YOU KNOW YOUR RIGHTS?

As Americans, we have the greatest freedom and the highest standard of living in the world. Help keep it that way by knowing your rights and guarding them well. Some of them are:

Freedom of worship
Right to secret ballot
Right to know how your union spends your dues*
Freedom of speech
Freedom of the press
Right to criticize officials
Right to know salaries of your union officers*
Freedom from search without warrant
Right to petition government for redress of grievances
Right to know if your union officers are Communists*
Right to know how your union is run*
Right to speedy and public trial by jury
Right to help of a lawyer
Right to hear your employer's side of disagreements*
Right not to appear as a witness against yourself
Right to refuse to permit the "check-off" of union dues*
Right to go direct to your boss with a grievance*
Right to be presumed innocent until proved guilty
Freedom to own property
Right to work despite union jurisdictional disputes*
Freedom to work in any locality
Right to proper supervision of your union welfare funds*
Freedom to start and manage a business
Freedom to make a profit
Right not to be fired by union leaders*
Right to vote on company's best offer*
